

---

March 21, 2023

To who it may concern:

When selecting wedding venues, having an organized on-site coordinator meant a lot to my mom and me as we weren't planning to hire our own outside coordinator. We immediately felt comfortable when we met Molly Sullivan for our first tour and she was a big part of the reason we ultimately decided to pick the venue. While we knew the on-site coordinator was just meant to do that, coordinate everything on behalf of the venue, Molly seemed to go above and beyond. She is a natural planner and it shows!

Throughout the year leading up to our wedding, Molly was our sole contact to the venue. She always helped with my (many!) questions quickly and if she didn't have an immediate answer, she would get one just as fast. Since the venue did all of their food and alcohol in house, Molly was the middle man coordinating everything. From food tastings, to submitting the final numbers, she kept us on track throughout the entire planning process. Another feature of the venue was that they had optional decor available to use – and once again – Molly helped handle all of this for us! We decided to order additional linens than what the venue provided and Molly not only provided suggestions on what we could order, she helped facilitate ordering them as well.

When it came to the day of the wedding, we couldn't have been more complimentary of Molly. My mom arrived at the space early and made note that Molly had already helped with so much of what needed to be done. She clearly paid attention to the many details I would make note of in the meetings and it showed come wedding day. During the reception, Molly helped us stay on track and really helped the night go smoothly. We opted for plated salads with a buffet meal and Molly ensured that everything was ready on time and it was all coordinated perfectly, even down to the few friends that had allergies and needed special attention.

From her attention to detail and organization to her great communication, I truly could not recommend Molly Sullivan enough! We could not have pulled off our day without her, and anyone would be lucky to have her on their team.

Sincerely,

Gigi Tumminia
October 2022 Bride